

Tips for Readers – “What Word is That?”

When you get to a word you don't know, first:

Then, you can ask yourself, in the sentence:

what would make sense? ✓

Look at the picture.

Think about what's happening.

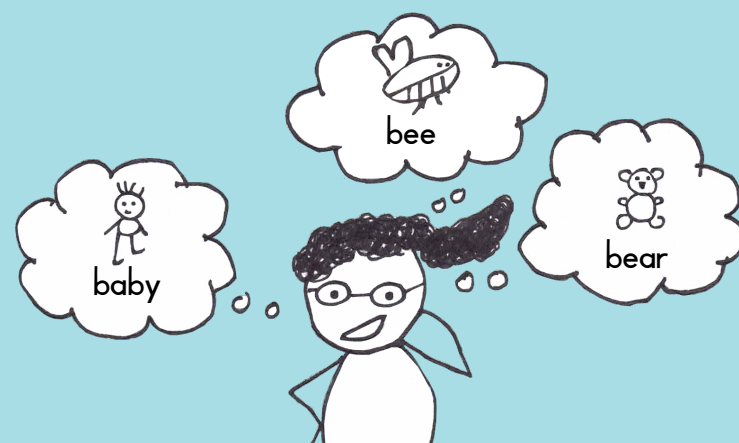

what would sound right? 🦻

What word did you hear in your head?

Try it out!

What word would fit in the sentence?

Tips for Readers – “What Word is That?”

When you get to a word you don't know, you can ask yourself:

what would look right?

Look for sounds you know.

ă - like apple?

or

ă - like acorn?

Check s-l-o-w-l-y :
read like a turtle.

p l a n e t

Break up the word and read part by part.

j u m p i n g

j u m p i n g

Crash the parts
together.

Try it in different ways.

Try a word you know.

